Opera Colorado Brings Cinderella to the Children's Museum of Denver

Special production puts opera in kids' hands

Denver, CO – April 17, 2011 – Opera Colorado's young artists are bringing their talents to the Children's Museum of Denver with their Opera in a Trunk series. The trunk will be filled with opera costumes, props and activities that provide an enjoyable and informative experience by bringing opera alive for young children. After dressing in real costumes and learning the fundamentals of the opera, children and their families will enjoy opera shorts from Cinderella and other classic tales performed by Opera Colorado's young artists.
