Family-friendly production part of Czech Point Denver

Denver, CO – February 2, 2011 – Families can take part in Czech Point Denver and help kick off Fairytales & Fables Month at the Children's Museum of Denver with Opera Colorado's production of Hansel & Gretel. Sung in English, staged traditionally and condensed for young attention spans, this enchanting performance of classical literature will educate young children about the fundamentals of the opera.

This family-friendly production of Hansel & Gretel is part of Czech Point Denver, a cooperative project led by Opera Colorado in conjunction with the company's February performances of the Dvořák opera Rusalka. The Brothers Grimm version of Hansel & Gretel was partially inspired by Bohemian folk legends, the same region that inspired Dvořák's masterpiece Rusalka.
