TOMORROW: Trick or Treat Street begins at the Children's Museum of Denver at Marsico Campus

Extended Museum hours for 3-day fall festival packed with Halloween fun

Denver, CO – The Children's Museum of Denver at Marsico Campus is bringing in pumpkins, hay bales and heaps of spooktacular fun to make the Museum a playful Halloween wonderland for children and adults alike. For three days, fairies, goblins, superheroes and all sorts of adorable costumed characters can play carnival games on the plaza, create Halloween crafts, parade from one Treat House to the next and so much more.

What: Trick or Treat Street

A three-day fall festival and trick-or-treating adventure at the Children's Museum of Denver at Marsico Campus.

Highlights include: Treat Houses, a monster carnival, Halloween arts and crafts, face painting, balloon animals, Vern's Mini Train and appearances from Curious George, the Toothfairy, a stilt walker and a few surprise characters.

For a complete schedule of events, visit www.mychildsmuseum.org.

Please note: Outdoor experiences are weather-dependent. Event is rain or shine.

Photo Opportunities: Thousands of adorable children in costumes trick-or-treating, making Halloween crafts and playing carnival games, all in the middle of a fall festival full of pumpkins, corn stalks and hay bales.

About the Children’s Museum of Denver at Marsico Campus

The mission of the Children's Museum of Denver at Marsico Campus is to create extraordinary experiences that champion the wonder and joy of childhood. They believe in kid-powered learning and every day, their expertly designed exhibits and programs open doors for Colorado's curious young minds to express what they know and to discover, create and explore more - on their own terms.

Since 1973, the Children’s Museum of Denver at Marsico Campus has served the metro-Denver community as a learning institute dedicated to the education and growth of young children and their caregivers. The Museum provides rich play experiences and a dynamic learning environment for children to joyously learn through innovative and interactive hands-on exhibits, engaging daily programming and year-round special events. Last year, they served more than 359,000 children and their grown-ups.

The Children’s Museum of Denver at Marsico Campus is a 501(c)(3), private non-profit organization, and a Tier II SCFD member.
