Denver Arts Week at the Children's Museum of Denver at Marsico Campus

The Children's Museum celebrates Denver Arts Week with special programming November 3 – 11

Please note: Please use "Children's Museum of Denver at Marsico Campus" in all publications.

Denver, CO – For the 11th year in a row, the Children's Museum will offer an array of activities for the youngest members of our community to celebrate Denver Arts Week. Special programming will take place in the Museum's most popular exhibits, including a creative spin on cuisine in The Teaching Kitchen, making art with items found in nature in Joy Park and expanded programming in The Art Studio. Featured guests include action painter and artist-in-residence alum, Armando Silva, the Colorado Ballet, Kalama Polynesian Dancers and Davis Dance Next Generation. All Denver Arts Week activities are included with Museum admission except where noted. Visit mychildsmuseum.org for more details.

Please note: All Denver Arts Week programming is subject to change.

Denver Arts Week Special Programming

Night at the Museums Open House

Saturday, November 4, 5 – 10 pm

Admission is free during Night at the Museums, and the Children's Museum is one of the stops on the complimentary shuttle service, provided by Visit Denver. Beloved artist-in-residence alum, Armando Silva, will be in The Art Studio from 6 – 8 pm engaging guests with an action painting performance.

Please note: Night at the Museums Open House is for everyone, no matter your age! Adults are free to come in and check out the Museum with or without children. Joy Park and The Teaching Kitchen will not be open during Night at the Museums.

About the Children's Museum of Denver at Marsico Campus

The mission of the Children's Museum of Denver at Marsico Campus is to create extraordinary experiences that champion the wonder and joy of childhood. They believe in kid-powered learning and every day, their expertly designed exhibits and programs open doors for Colorado's curious young minds to express what they know and to discover, create and explore more - on their own terms.

Since 1973, the Children's Museum of Denver at Marsico Campus has served the metro-Denver community as a learning institute dedicated to the education and growth of young children and their caregivers. The Museum provides rich play experiences and a dynamic learning environment for children to joyously learn through innovative and interactive hands-on exhibits, engaging daily programming and year-round special events. Last year, they served 568,000 children and their grown-ups.

The Children's Museum of Denver at Marsico Campus is a 501(c)(3), private non-profit organization, and a Tier II SCFD member.
